

Master of Public Health (MPH) Intercalated Programme

Programme Overview

- An inter-professional pathway for MBBS, BChinMed, BNurs and BPharm students of HKU
- A broadly based training programme on contemporary health care issues
- Learning with students from all over the world
- A quotable qualification recognised by the Medical Council of Hong Kong for MBBS graduates
- The award of an intercalated MPH degree will be conferred at the same time as the completion of the undergraduate programme

Modes of Study

- 1-year Full-time

Effective February 3rd, 2018, HKU School of Public Health's MPH programme is an applicant for accreditation by the Council on Education for Public Health (CEPH). The accreditation review will address the Master of Public Health programme. Other degrees and areas of study offered by this institution will not be included in the unit of accreditation review. For more information on the accrediting process, please visit CEPH's website at <http://ceph.org/>
